

Supplementary Figure 1.

The box plot showing the wide variance in the number of ACF in normal subjects. Sm (+) was defined as subjects with more than 10-pack years who were still smoking or who had quit smoking within the past 10 years. Alc (+) was defined as subjects whose alcohol consumption was in excess of 45 g/day.